Many times a day I realize how much of my own life is built on the labor of my fellow men. I must exert myself in return as much as I have received.
Albert Einstein

And finally I twist my heart round again, so that the bad is on the outside and the good is on the inside, and keep on trying to find a way of becoming what I would so like to be, and could be, if there weren't any other people living in the world.
Anne Frank
